Eagle Scout Helps Organize Home School!

Joseph Modica, age 16, is actively working toward the prestigious designation of Eagle Scout. The road to this goal must be paved with service to the community, and Joseph did just that when he helped to organize a party of volunteers to assist the Mission prepare the school building for the advent of the brand new "Our Lady of Hope Home School"!

As St. Luke's begins this new chapter of service to God's children, we excitedly re-open the hallowed halls of the school building to teachers and students for the first time in decades, calling on the prayers of past graduates, teachers, and the entire community.

Joseph and the volunteers he inspired provided a needed service that directly affects the children who will learn and grow in our new school. In this issue you will find many opportunities to make an impact on our ministries...Read on!
